

In fiscal year 2025, Accompany Capital provided $1,313,500 in loans to 49 small businesses in Manhattan

About Manhattan

Manhattan may be New York City's smallest borough, but it punches far above its weight. With nearly 75,000 residents per square mile, it is the most densely populated county in the entire United States. Home to globally renowned financial, corporate, and cultural institutions, its economy is nonetheless built on small businesses at every level — and its thriving Asian communities have made it one of the top counties in the nation for Asian-owned enterprises.

Fancy 93 Cleaners

An Chi Chen

Fancy 93 Cleaners is a family-owned dry-cleaning business in East Harlem, purchased from its previous owner by An Chi Chen in 2024. The business provides a range of services, including tailoring, wash-and-fold, and specialty cleaning for carpets, upholstery, leather, suede, and fur.

Following a seamless ownership transition, the business has continued to thrive, providing both commercial and retail services throughout New York City. Today, Fancy 93 Cleaners maintains more than 10 drop-off locations across Manhattan's East Side.

In 2026 Accompany Capital provided an SBA Community Advantage loan to support operational improvements and help fuel the business's continued growth. As customer demand continues to grow, the company is focused on expanding operations and strengthening its position as a leading service provider in the New York market.
