

BUSINESS CENTER FOR NEW AMERICANS

Dear Friends,

During these beautiful September days, we are always filled with energy and a renewed sense of purpose!

We look forward to celebrating not only our good news from this summer but reaching new goals this fall helping New Yorkers create new opportunity and financial health.

Because the Taxi and Limousine Commission (TLC) is now accepting applications for Street Hail (SHL) licenses, we have been working closely with the TLC to provide orientation sessions for livery drivers to help them determine if applying for the new license is right for them.

Exchange

State and federal insurance exchanges are websites on which small businesses can shop for health plans. Though the deadline is less than a week away, many small businesses don't know they have to notify employees.

The Pottal Fii Bhantal Fouta Djallon Soccer Tournament in the Bronx is one of the highlights of the summer in the Guinean refugee community. And this year, BCNA was proud to sponsor Toudue, a team whose Guinean players ranged in age from 18 to 25, and who placed 3rd out of the 12 teams that competed in the summer-long tournament.

Congratulations to New Client Bimala Pandey

Bimala Pandey, who immigrated from Nepal, is one of our newest clients, and is the owner of Beauty Threading Spa, an eyebrow threading spa in the Bronx.

Dong Tran speaks at "Financing Your Business"

Senior Loan Officer Dong Tran was a guest speaker at "Financing Your Business," a seminar sponsored by World Journal, a daily newspaper serving the Chinese community, and by State Farm Insurance.

Learning from our A-List Interns

A few days ago we had a lunch to thank our invaluable interns, Rumi Ahmed, Ami Doumbia, and Nancy Zhang, who will be returning to the High School for Economics and Finance in a few weeks.
